

Cadbury House Captain: Millie Sherwood

Tell us something interesting about yourself?

Most people don't know that I'm actually Amelia not Millie – please never call me Amelia because I won't respond to it.

What 3 words would your best friend use to describe you?

My best friend says that I'm considerate, trustworthy and enthusiastic.

What was the interview process like and how did you prepare?

I wrote and sent an application for the school to view on why I would like to be House Captain. I then had to prepare a short speech to present at my house assembly and I was voted for by my house.

What plans do you have for the incoming year?

Along with the other Cadbury house captain – Georgie – I want to focus on charity this year and raising more money than we previously have as a house as I feel this is where we don't do as well as we could in this area.

What is your favourite house event to date?

I have always loved house interform sports and it is a day I look forward to each year. I love that our forms come together and bond to be a bit competitive for a day and have some fun.

What is your favourite cheese & why?

HALLOUMI.

Are you an outdoor or an indoor person and what do you enjoy about that?

I am an outdoors person, I like adventurous things and trying new activities. Although I still like my indoor movie days.

Who was your hero as a child and why?

I loved Hermione Granger as a child. I always dressed up as her for world book day and wanted to be just like her. I loved her confidence and how clever she was.

What was the 1st single you ever bought?

I bought the Barbie Album and my favourite song on there was Genie in the bottle by Christina Aguilera (still a great song).

What is your favourite word and why?

'Kerfuffle' – because at some point in the day I'm usually in a kerfuffle.

If you could be anywhere in the world this weekend, where would you be?

Back in Fiji because I had the best three weeks there in summer with the best people.
