

Harpenden Schools' Peace Day September 21st 2017

Leo and I were invited to attend and participate in the Harpenden Schools' 2017 Peace Day event, which took place at the Methodist church in town, on 21st September.

We were joined by the majority of the primary schools in Harpenden, and presented the afternoon alongside the Head Boy & Head Girl at Sir John Lawes and St George's School.

The purpose of today's event was to recognise how important spreading love and peace is – especially after the awful things that have happened recently.

We stood together - united, strong and passionate – and sang until we couldn't sing anymore! The church erupted with bundles of warm energy as we used our voices to celebrate just how special we all are.

We were blown away by some of the many inspiring and thought-provoking acts, including Roundwood's own Melissa N, who did an incredible job. Well done, Melissa – you made us all so proud!

To round the afternoon off, we collectively sang 'A Bridge Over Troubled Water', which brought many to (happy) tears, and put into perfect words what we couldn't when trying to explain how necessary peace is for us all to live fulfilling and happy lives.

The event wouldn't have been possible without Helen Cox, who organised it so well!

Thank you, Helen, for such a wonderful afternoon!
