

THINKING ABOUT STUDYING PHILOSOPHY AND ETHICS?

What do all these people have in common?

Philosophy literally means the 'love of wisdom'.

Philosophy and Ethics is the study and analysis of the world and people to understand why they behave as they do and how their approach to the world impacts on their actions.

Is it possible to choose to believe you don't have free will?

Did you really choose to read this sentence?

Are you the same person you were when you started reading this sentence?

Philosophy and Ethics helps develop understanding of spiritual, moral, ethical, social and cultural studies.

How far would you go to save people?

- Do you go for the greatest happiness for the greatest number?
- OR
- Is there a universal moral code for right and wrong?
- OR
- Is does the situation govern your choice?

Are you more than your physical body?
When you have a feeling of love and anger where do you find it?

Religious studies develops a variety of skills, including those of discussion and debate.

The valuable skills of logical argument and critical evaluation are also developed and can be transferred to other areas of study.

Is our sense of right and wrong innate?

Is the big bang a sufficient explanation?

The background of the image is a deep black space filled with numerous small, bright white stars. A prominent feature is a large, glowing nebula in shades of blue and white, with a bright central core. The nebula's structure is complex, with swirling and filamentary patterns. Two bright, diagonal streaks of light, possibly representing star trails or light beams, cross the scene, one from the top right and another from the bottom left, intersecting near the center of the nebula.

Can you describe nothingness?

Why do people believe?

God y boŵ

But I don't want to be a vicar!

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_U8xSrBKx8Jo

According to AGCAS - the Association of Graduate Careers Advisory Service. RS/Theology graduates go into a wide range of careers. However they, and employers, feel that it particularly prepares students for the following careers:

- Broadcast, film, video and interactive media sector
- Education sector
- Financial services sector
- Legal sector
- Politics
- Publishing sector
- Social care sector
- Voluntary sector
- Social & pastoral care
- Community work
- Social work
- Journalism

How does it help your future?

- Skills
 - Ability to evaluate
 - To reflect on opinions, your own and others
 - To be articulate
 - To read , understand and process complex issues
 - Knowledge
 - In depth wisdom
 - Great debating skills
-

The details of the course

There is no coursework.

A2

Three exams at the end of Year 13.

Each exam is 2 hours.

Exams on - Philosophy, Ethics, Theology

Philosophy = ancient philosopher, mind body and soul, problem of evil, religious experiences, arguments for the existence of God, religious language and nature of God

Ethics = ethical theories, business ethics, euthanasia, religious language, conscience, sexual ethics

Theology = human nature, gender and society, religion and society, life after death, moral action, nature of Jesus, secularisation,

FAQ

Do you have to be religious to do P and E?

No, the majority of our students are not. The course challenges you to reflect on and be able to defend your views.

Do you have to have completed the full course P and E GCSE?

No, all you need is a 6 GCSE grade in a Humanities subject and a 6 in English.

What degrees can I do with P and E A level?

Any! RS is highly regarded by universities and employers as it proves that you are able to think, discuss and evaluate. It is an excellent preparation for any humanities degree.