

Year 11

Transition tasks – Summer 2021 (Economics)

 Complete this course which introduces the topics you will study at A Level Head start for A Level Economics Tutor2U	 Listen to this audio book on audible about the history of capitalism Talking to My Daughter About the Economy Yanis Varoufakis	 Read this Nobel winning Authors book 'Poor Economics - a radical rethinking of the way to combat global poverty'. Buy Online Abhijit V. Banerjee, Esther Duflo (Nobel Prize Winner)
 Listen to this podcast series to make sense of the current situation using economics Planet Money Podcast Planet Money Podcast	 Watch this video About the impacts of the Chinese economic slowdown Synoptic Economics: China's Slowdown Tutor2U	 Listen to these podcasts, topical podcasts released every week The economists weekly podcasts
 Watch this talk by the undercover economist Tim Harford The Undercover Economist Wired 2012 Talk – Tim Harford	 Read these blog posts about the best way to reduce sugar intake and think about if government should intervene, and if so, how it should act Water Fountains in Schools Behavioural Economics Misguided sugar tax unlikely to be effective Should we extend sugar and salt bans? Government floats ban on energy drinks How many sugars in a Coke? Tutor2U	