

A-level French Super Curriculum

Read 	Do 	Find
Choose one of the books from the AQA 'Works' that you are not already studying	Watch at least one of the films from the AQA 'Works' that you are not already studying	Find a French organisation or person to follow on Twitter.
Choose 1 of your other A level subjects and find a relevant article about it in French.	Mentor a French student from a younger year group; by helping them with their French, you will revise your own grammar and vocabulary and it will look great on your UCAS application!	Research a French speaking country outside of Europe.
Read about the Enlightenment	Watch this film. It is loosely based on the émeutes of 2005 and is similar to La Haine.	Find and watch 2 Ted Talks in French
Choose a novel or magazine to read from the large selection in the Conversation Room.	Take part in one of the national French competitions that are held each year for A level students studying French. See Mrs Phillips for more details.	Research the https://www.academie-francaise.fr/ What do they do? Why is it important to protect language usage?
Read a book about about France. Here is a list of suggestions.	Write an article or poem in French.	Find out about French Argot.