

A-level Spanish Super Curriculum

Read 	Do 	Find
Keep up to date with Spanish current affairs using the BBC Mundo or El País app or here  www.elmundo.es	Listen to a Spanish podcast on..  https://www.listennotes.com/latest-podcasts/spanish/ OR https://lnns.co/CwtkvjHiGxZ	Research a place you would like to visit in South America – look into their culture, food, etc. Where would you visit? What is the cultural importance?
Read the book “Como agua para chocolate” (“Like Water for Chocolate”) by Laura Esquivel and write a summary in English OR write about your favourite character. It is a great novel that incorporates food and love and will be great for your vocabulary	Watch the daily news online  https://www.telecinco.es/informativos/	Research a significant historical or political event in Spain or a Spanish speaking country and create a poster for display to educate our younger students.
Read a recipe for a Spanish or South American dish and make it, either bring it in for us to try in class or take pictures to show us! Find ideas here https://www.comedera.com/100-platos-comida-espanola/ OR https://www.pinterest.es/escrignano1988/recetas-sudamerica	Watch one of the films from the list below and create a worksheet for KS4 students to complete to check their understanding of the film El Orfanato , El Laberinto del Fauno , Los diarios de Motocicleta , La lengua de las Mariposas , Manolito Gafotas , Ocho Apellidos Vascos	Find an article of interest to you in Spanish and try to find a near identical article on the same topic in English. Write down all the vocabulary you have managed to find just by using the 2 articles (not a dictionary or translator) BBC and BBC Mundo are good for this task
Read a Spanish magazine (there are lots free online or in the MFL Classrooms)	Take an interactive tour of the artwork at Museo del Prado  https://www.museodelprado.es/en/whats-on/multimedia/rubens-360/03ee91a3-f7b6-4bf3-baa4-f23aff4c48ae	Find out about the Royal Family in Spain. Have there been any controversies?
Change the language on your phone to Spanish for a week and jot down all the vocabulary you learn	Watch two TED talks in Spanish and write down what you have learnt  https://www.ted.com/playlists/518/ted_talks_en_espa%C3%B1ol	Find a Spanish event you like the look of and go with a friend or family member  https://batterseaspanish.com/events/