

GCSE Spanish Super Curriculum

Read 	Do 	Find
Find a simplified children's version of the Spanish novel Don Quijote and read as much as you can of it. Write a review of it.	Imagine that you were going to go on a month-long road trip around Spain. Sketch a map of Spain and plot your route. Where would you start, where would you stay and why would you choose those places to visit? Research the areas and write about the monuments and things to see.	Find an artist or musician from Spain or South America, and do a cover version of a piece of music of theirs or a famous work of art.
Look through some of the excellent language magazines that we subscribe to at school. They are in ML6 or in the library, and also available via the website www.maryglasgowplus.com	Learn a regional dance from Spain or South America. There are many to choose from!	Look up the differences between the Spanish dialects and learn some new words from them.
https://www.jamieoliver.com/recipes/category/world/spanish/read-through-some-of-these-delicious-recipes-and-see-if-you-can-decide-which-to-make/	Turn your phone and smart devices to Spanish so that your controls and instructions are in Spanish. You will learn lots of new verbs and key words that are in the GCSE syllabus!	Challenge yourself to learn 5 new Spanish words every day for a month. If you write them down and we test you - we'll be super impressed!
Find a copy of the Fountains of Silence from our school library. It has rave reviews from our Year 9 Spanish students!	Watch your favourite film but turn the subtitles on to Spanish. Or better still, watch an authentic Spanish film or TV series on Netflix.	Find out about the Spanish royal family and create your own Family Tree to reflect all of the changes that have happened recently. If you research well, you might find out some interesting stories!
Read a few travel pages on the best places to travel to in Spain and South America. Research where you could stay and what trips you might do while you were there. Look in to the local culture and cuisine! It's fascinating!	Use our school recommended websites to do some grammar practice for Spanish. There are lots of new pages coming on linguascope and bbc.bitesize.	Find someone who speaks Spanish and create an interview with them. Find out about their free time and what they like doing and why, and about their family. What subject did they like best in school? Was it Spanish?
