Why did our students choose GCSE Spanish?

I have Spanish friends and wanted to be able to communicate with them better

My confidence in my speaking has improved so much, I feel like I'm working towards fluency

I really enjoyed it in Y9 and found the lessons really engaging and fun

I like how the words sound and how widely spoken it is

I want to be bilingual

I find the culture interesting

Learning a language is an impressive skill to have and a useful tool for the future

I wanted to push myself out of my comfort zone

What do our students say about studying GCSE Spanish?

The teachers are engaging and very nice

I enjoy the enthusiasm in teaching style and how it feels like we are learning Spanish to be able to use it in the real world

Lots of variety in content and teaching activities

The vocab games and teaching methods are really fun and useful

Nice, small groups

Great for people who are passionate about languages!

Really approachable and caring teachers who we know we can always go to for help or extra support

I would recommend the course if you are willing to put in the work and effort as some elements are quite challenging

Trip to Madrid
