

Your Year 7 English/Literature Learning Journey

Don't forget your reading home learning! It's important to read widely and often.

Year 8

Make sure you read lots over the summer!

Argue your Case

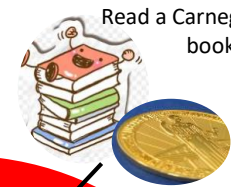

- Analysing and exploring the impact a range of speeches from history.
- Learning rhetorical devices and skills
- Structuring an persuasive argument
- Impact of intonation and delivery
- Listening to others.

Assessment Week

Introduction to Shakespeare

- Conventions of comedy and tragedy
- Comprehension of Shakespeare's narratives.
- Introduction to heroes, villains and complex characters.
- Recreative writing skills

Scholars
Read a Carnegie Award book.

Scholars
Research the life of Dickens

Skills:

- Learning to express your opinions and ideas
- Analysis and inference of writers' choices.
- Listening carefully to others.

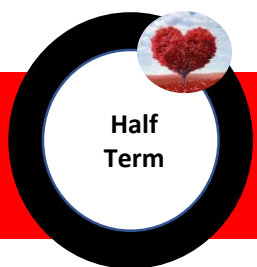

How many books have you crossed off the 'Bookopoly' board so far?

Dystopian genre study

- Context of novel within a genre
- Comprehension of whole novel and themes
- Character tracking
- Further development of inference skills

Dystopian genre study

- Using a novel as inspiration for creative writing.
- Exploring evidence and methods
- Developing subject specific vocabulary
- Detailed analytical writing

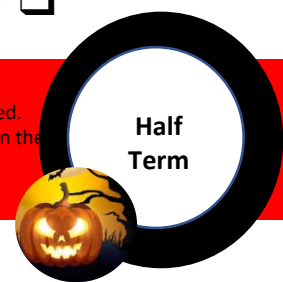

Easter

History of the English Language

Knowledge:

- How our language has evolved.
- Exploring a range of writers in the literary canon.
- The impact of context.

The Giver

- Using a wide range of genres to inspire quality creative writing.
- Using sentence types and structures for impact.
- Selecting effective vocabulary choices
- Using 3rd person narration.

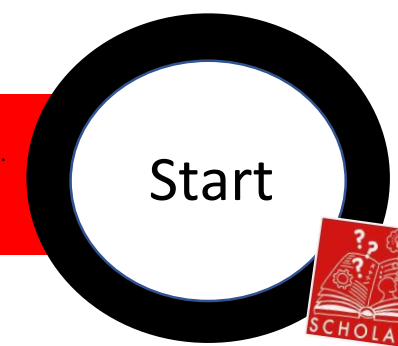

Scholars

Go to the BBC 500 words website! Listen to the podcast, read the stories and write your own!

Creative Thinking

- Confidence in the classroom.
- Reading texts.
- Writing freely in response.

Start

Your teacher will suggest scholars activities throughout the year, make sure you give as many as possible a go! There are some ideas on here!

Aspire

